

Dr Bronwen Scott

- Over 30 years' experience in provision of Orientation and Mobility (O&M) services to adults and children in Australia and the United Kingdom.
- Specialist in provision of early intervention O&M services to young children.
- Experience in working with children with Cortical Vision Impairment (CVI)
- Experience in working with individuals with acquired brain injury (ABI), multiple disabilities, young adults and the aged.
- Experience in the training of assistive technology for O&M purposes.
- Experience in conducting and writing environmental access reports.
- Tertiary level course planning, writing, delivery and assessment (University and VET sector).
- Experience in research.
- Conference presentations at a local, national and international level.
- Peer reviewed and independently published publications.

Memberships

- Orientation and Mobility Association of Australasia (OMAA)
- South Pacific Educators in Vision Impairment (SPEVI)
- International Council for Education of People with Visual Impairment (ICEVI)
- Association for Education and Rehabilitation of the Blind and Visually Impaired (AER)
- Early Childhood Intervention Australia (ECIA)